

Dickerson Park ZOO

Dickerson Park Zoo's 55 acres are home to hundreds of animals, representing habitats in Africa, Tropical Asia, South America, Australia and Missouri. Favorites include Asian elephants, tigers, giraffes and river otters. Stand eye-to-eye with giraffes on an elevated feeding/viewing deck. The Diversity of Life exhibits showcase reptiles and amphibians from around the world that share common types of habitats.

For more information, visit Dickerson Park Zoo – See. Connect. Protect.

