

ZRA
MARVIN JONES AWARD OF EXCELLENCE
WINNERS

2024 Kaylin Dunn	SeaWorld Parks & Entertainment Reason: Dedication to mentorship of numerous ZRA members Her knowledge, expertise, and devotion to the field which has fostered growth and excellence in the Registrar community.
2007 Lynn McDuffie	Disney's Animal Kingdom Reason: Contributions to the ZIMS development process and her long-standing commitment as ZRA's permit and licensing liaison with both AZA and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
2007 Nilda Ferrer	Wildlife Conservation Society/Bronx Zoo Reason: Contributions to the ZIMS development process and her long standing role as co-chair of AZA's International Animal Data Information Systems (IADISC) Committee
2005 Linda Robledo	Audubon Zoological Garden Reason: Early ZRA Leadership, developed one of the first in- house Records Keeper Training, helped develop the importance of Genealogies to animal records, developed the Dealer Profile Process, and co- founded the Safe Haven animal records concept
2003 Adrienne Miller	Roger Williams Park Zoo Reason: Involvement and leadership in several ZRA activities, mammal team leader in developing the Standards for Data Entry, involvement in founding and as a continuing instructor for the Institutional Records Keeping (IRK) course, and was the first member of ZRA to be elected to the AZA's Management School Board of Regents
2000 Karin Schwartz	Milwaukee County Zoo Reason: Developed the original Institutional Record Keeping (IRK) Course which became an AZA sponsored Management School course

2000 Joanne Earnhardt Lincoln Park Zoo

Reason:

Developed the first organized set of Data Entry Standards for Exotic Animal Records

1993 Jean Miller

Buffalo Zoo

Reason:

Developed the first Animal Records Keeping Manual

1993 Judith Block

National Zoo (Smithsonian Institution)

Reason:

Developed the first Animal Records Keeping Manual